Article 15 International students shall complete their studies within the maximum duration of schooling (including suspension period of schooling and retention period of student status) prescribed by USST. Within the prescribed duration of schooling, an international student may suspend his/her schooling for two consecutive years upon approval, but the cumulative duration of suspension may not exceed two years.

Article 16 Application by an international student for private affairs leave which lasts five days or less shall be approved by HUJIANG College, and that lasting for more than five days shall be approved by HUJIANG College and filed with International Students Office of International Affairs Office. If an L Q W H U Q D W L R Q D O V W X G H Q W ¶ V C each semester reaches four weeks or more, he/she shall go through the procedures of suspension.

If an international student needs to suspend his or her schooling for personal reasons (including diseases, etc.), he/she shall submit a written application and provide relevant evidence (USST ¶ health department shall sign opinions in the case of suspension of schooling due to diseases). The suspension of schooling takes effect upon approval of the school which the student belongs to, HUJIANG College and the Teaching Affairs OFFICE.

Where an international student must suspend his/her schooling in accordance with USST Regulations on Full-time Undergraduate Student Status Management, HUJIANG College may notify the student to suspend his/her schooling. The international student shall go through relevant procedures and leave the campus within one week after receiving a notice from HUJIANG College. Any international student who fails to go through the procedures of leaving the campus within given time limit shall be deemed to have suspended his/her schooling, and USST may directly perform the procedures of suspending his/her schooling and ask the student to leave the campus.

Article 17 No international student is entitled to benefits enjoyed by current students during his/her schooling suspension period. USST shall not assume any liabilities for any accident or incident that an international student has been involved in during his/her schooling suspension period. If an international student has been found with violation of laws or discipline during schooling suspension period, USST shall punish the student according to discipline violation punishment rules of USST.
